Chair's Foreword

CHAIR'S FOREWORD

The last year has been a challenging one for the Agency and indeed a year of significant transition involving the arrival of a new Chair and the recruitment of a new Chief Executive. The Agency also welcomed three new Board members.

During a period of significant change there can be a dip in performance but, due to the hard work and efforts of our staff and the oversight of the delivery of the Business Plan by the Board, almost all of the strategic and operational targets were achieved and in many cases exceeded. Our three divisions achieved this level of performance against a background of preparing for future change associated with the key recommendations arising from the Department for Employment and Learning (DEL) review of employment law, the acquisition of a new case management system and the heavy demands on our services at a time of financial uncertainty.

As with all change it provides an opportunity to refresh and review our strategy and priorities. To this end the Board took time out with the Senior Management Team during the year to enable constructive reflection on Board effectiveness and priorities and to support planning for the future. It was also an opportunity to help build a new team. The outworkings from this event have fed into the 2015-16 Business Plan and will inform thinking when the Corporate Plan is reviewed next year.

The Northern Ireland Roundtable on Employment Relations, which the Agency chairs and facilitates, has effectively contributed to the review of employment law and developed a revised draft joint declaration of protection and complementary policy guidance. Importantly in moving forward the Roundtable is taking time out to discuss how it can continue to play a pivotal role in influencing the future shape of Northern Ireland's employment relations system.

The Chair and CEO took the opportunity during the year to meet many of the Agency's main stakeholders in order to receive feedback on their perception and view of the performance of the Agency but also to ascertain stakeholder needs so that this year's management plan and future Corporate Plans reflect what is needed by employers, trade unions, employee representatives and other parties that contribute to good workforce relations.

Good relations in the workplace is essential to workforce harmony and contributes to the success of the enterprise, enhances the experience of the employee and the customer whilst impacting positively on the economy and indeed society as a whole. The Agency is committed to ensure that all parties in the workplace know and understand the role of the Agency and can access its services in order to achieve good employment relations. To this end a review of the Agency's stakeholder engagement strategy is already under way to ensure that we are connecting with all our stakeholders both internal and external to the organisation.

The Agency will also continue to work closely with organisations at a regional national and international level in the exercise of its statutory obligations building relationships and learning from best practice whilst raising the profile of the Agency for the benefit of all those it serves.

I am grateful for the hard work and commitment of our staff and fellow Board members in achieving the performance outlined in this annual report.

Chapter 4

Chief Executive's Overview

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S OVERVIEW

I joined the Labour Relations Agency as Chief Executive on 16 March 2015 and just hope that these brief reflections do justice to the diversity and quality of the services that have been delivered by the Agency over the past year. In that short time I have been hugely impressed by the commitment and enthusiasm of our staff in supporting the development of progressive workplace policies, and where relationships do break down, by helping parties to explore and agree mutually beneficial resolutions. As a service delivery organisation we are rightly very focused on the needs of our customers, but it would be remiss of me not to recognise the work of our Corporate Services team who continue to ensure that the Agency fulfils all of our accountability and legal compliance responsibilities. I want to put on record my thanks to all of my staff for their endeavours and achievements in 2014-15.

I want to thank the Board for the support and strategic direction that it has provided throughout the current reporting period. As with every organisation there is always the potential to focus on the 'here and now' but the Board has been assiduous in ensuring that the Agency continues to grow and develop in line with the commitments established in our Corporate and Annual Business Plans. It is also appropriate to make reference to the very positive role that our Joint Negotiating and Consultative Committee has played in ensuring that there continues to be a very positive industrial and employment relations culture during what has been a difficult period for the wider public sector. Finally I want to recognise the support and contribution of our delivery partners and the wider employment relations community in helping the Agency to make a positive contribution to the wellbeing of Northern Ireland's labour market.

I am not going to rehearse the content of this annual report but I do want to draw your attention to the strategic report which provides a snapshot of the breadth of work that the Agency has been taking forward over the past year, but which also highlights some of the challenges that we will continue to address in 2015-16; supporting public sector reform, exploring more effective ways of meeting the needs of small and medium-sized enterprises and delivering skills-based development programmes are particular examples. A lot of the Agency's work is delivered on a confidential basis which means that we are quite constrained in terms of how we can promote the positive outcomes from our interventions. We are therefore very dependent on the good offices of our stakeholders and individual clients who use our service; so I am taking this opportunity to encourage you to continue to champion the work of the Agency.

In looking forward the Agency is committed to meeting whatever challenges emerge from the Department for Employment and Learning (DEL) current review of employment law. There is always a need to explore more innovative ways of presenting and delivering services and the Agency will continue to engage with our stakeholders on an individual and collective basis to ensure that our programmes and services continue to meet the needs of both employees and employers.

STRATEGIC REPORT

5.1 STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES

1. The Agency is the preferred choice when organisations seek guidance on employment relations issues.

The Agency met its target to develop and publish an extensive and flexible calendar of events on our website by 31 October 2014. The Agency also continued to respond to emerging needs by hosting additional events in response to significant changes to Northern Ireland employment law; the recent introduction of the new Shared Parental Leave and Pay arrangements from 5 April 2015 is a notable example with the Agency hosting a number of very successful seminars in partnership with the Department for Employment and Learning (DEL). Public sector funding constraints meant that the Agency was not able to dedicate resources to support any extensive advertising campaigns. However, the Agency did source a range of positive marketing opportunities targeted at Small/Medium Enterprises (SMEs) with our events programme being listed on a number of public data-bases including Invest Northern Ireland's website business portal (nibusinessinfo.com) and the Belfast City Hub. The Agency's events programme was also promoted by the network of local enterprise development units, employer and employee associations, trade federations and professional bodies. The Agency also continued to engage with the main employer representative bodies that provide support and advice to the SME sector.

2. Help prevent and resolve individual and collective disputes relating to employment relations and employment rights.

The Agency responded comprehensively to the new service initiatives arising from the DEL review of employment law. Feedback from DEL's 2013-14 public consultation on employment law supported the introduction of early conciliation which would require all potential tribunal claims to be routed in the first instance through the Labour Relations Agency. The Agency has now completed the initial development work on an early conciliation service delivery model. This involved detailed consideration of how the model of early conciliation was introduced in the rest of the UK from May 2014. The Agency has also completed an initial scoping exercise to identify all of the wider operational implications associated with the introduction of the new early conciliation service and will now initiate a programme of meetings with the tribunal service and other key stakeholders. The Agency has also developed a new case management system that will not only support the new early conciliation service but all of our existing conciliation, mediation and arbitration services.

3. Enhance the capacity of SME and Micro organisations to demonstrate good employment relations as a contribution to sustainable growth.

The Agency did not fully meet its target to develop a SME and Micro support strategy by 30 September but did meet our existing commitment to deliver a range of advisory services to SMEs and Micro employers. Taking account of empirical research and customer feedback the Agency tailors its advisory, conciliation and mediation services to best meet the needs of Northern Ireland's small firm economy. Conflict at work, if not handled well, has a direct impact on productivity and growth. The Agency, either working independently or in partnership with other providers, delivers programmes designed to build employer confidence in terms of employing people and in the handling of people issues, thereby providing a basis for sustainable growth. During 2014-15 the Agency delivered over 160 in-company seminars designed to raise awareness of employers' legal responsibilities and to promote and develop good practice. Almost 40% of these seminars targeted employers in the SME and Micro sectors. Mindful of the very unique challenges that SMEs face, the Agency has committed to reviewing and reconfiguring its existing services to take account of the recent DEL sponsored research into the employment rights information and support needs of the SME sector.

5.1 STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES cont'd...

4. Support public sector organisations as they address the major employment relations challenges deriving from the public sector reform agenda.

The Agency did not fully meet its target to develop a public sector support programme by 31 December 2014 but has made good progress in terms of supporting the eleven new councils that came into existence on 1 April 2015. The Agency recognises that the current programme of public sector reform in both central and local government will create significant employment relations challenges and we have already identified a number of potential development areas where the Agency can add value; supporting the creation of a regional industrial relations forum and the development and the embedding of employment relations best practice at an individual council level. The Agency has already had initial contact with management and the relevant trade unions and has developed a framework document that will offer a structure for the discussions on the merits of regional bargaining arrangements. Whatever outcomes emerge from this process will help to inform how the Agency could support central government to deal with the restructuring of government departments post the 2016 Assembly Elections.

5. Contribute to the development of public policy including the design and delivery of a system of employment relations for Northern Ireland.

The Agency responded to DEL consultations on Zero Hours Contracts and the Working Time Regulations. The Agency also provided advice to DEL on a wide range of employment relations policy areas at each of the quarterly accountability review meetings. DEL officials were also invited to give a presentation to the Agency Board on the outcomes of the employment law review public consultation. On the basis of this engagement the Agency has explored how early conciliation and neutral assessment could be integrated within our existing suite of conciliation and arbitration services. The Agency has also had preliminary discussions with DEL about the progression of a formal review of the Agency's statutory arbitration scheme which was launched by Minister Farry in September 2012. A series of meetings were also held with key stakeholders to explore areas of common interest and to seek views on the quality and continued relevance of the Agency's advisory and dispute resolution services.

6. Build partnerships with key stakeholders to expand LRA's reach and influence in improving employment relations.

Under Article 83 of the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1992 the Agency is empowered to promote the improvement of industrial relations. During 2014-15 the Agency completed a programme of engagements with individual delivery partners to evaluate the effectiveness of the existing partnership arrangements, to explore further development opportunities and to develop a shared understanding of how Northern Ireland's employment relations systems can be improved. In addition the Agency continued to facilitate the work of the Northern Ireland Employment Relations Roundtable with a view to developing an agenda for change around a number of key drivers (skills, best practice and research). The Agency recognises the positive impact that the collective voice of the social partners can have and will continue to support the work of the Employment Relations Roundtable.

7. Act as a creative and innovative influence in the employment relations field.

The Agency has continued to be proactive in championing innovative approaches to employment relations. The Agency is a founding member of the International Agencies Group which was established to promote and share employment relations good practice. In developing responses to the DEL review of employment law the Agency has taken account of the significant programmes of reform that are taking place in the rest of the UK and the RoI. The Agency is also a founding member of the UK-wide Employee Relations Institute (ERI) which seeks to improve workplace relations through setting professional standards and developing the knowledge, confidence and practical skills of managers and representatives in employee relations. The Agency has recently persuaded the ERI that it needs to have a regional emphasis that is more sensitive to the structure of the Northern Ireland economy. As part of its annual lecture programme the Agency invited Jim Mather, Chair of the Scottish Government's Working Together Review to present the findings and recommendations from its report 'Progressive Workplaces in Scotland'.

8. Alternative dispute resolution processes e.g. conciliation, mediation and arbitration are the norm for the third party resolution of all employment relations disputes.

The Agency continues to actively respond to the needs of both employers and individual employees through the work of its advisory services and the active promotion of our conciliation, mediation and arbitration services. The Agency recognises that it needs to be flexible in terms of how it presents its services, striking the right balance between Agency-based workshops and in-company programmes; and has now introduced a programme for supporting the introduction of in-house dispute resolution processes from 1 October 2014. Initial positive engagements have taken place with HR Directors of the Health Trusts and representatives of the Department of Finance and Personnel (DFP), local councils and the implementation team of the new Education Authority (EA). Understandably, progress on this initiative has been constrained by the impact of the change agenda taking place across the public sector in Northern Ireland, but the Agency is committed to developing in-house programmes that will assist public sector organisations in responding positively to the Executive's reform programme.

9. Enhance the employment relations skills of managers and in particular first line owner managers/supervisors.

Developing the capacity, competence and confidence of employers, line managers and employees to resolve employment relations issues quickly and as close to source as possible continues to be a high priority for the Agency. This is particularly relevant given the structure of the Northern Ireland economy where micro businesses (those businesses with fewer than 10 employees) account for approximately 90% of all the Northern Ireland based VAT and/or PAYE registered enterprises. Our programme of events is regularly reviewed and updated to take account of legislative and case law developments and is increasingly focussed on developing the skills of first line owner managers/ supervisors. In addition to the planned programme of events, we have also responded to a variety of requests from numerous organisations to provide tailored training in employment relations skills. Our one-hour briefing sessions on topical employment relations issues seem to be meeting the demand for the acquisition of practical knowledge and skills with least disturbance to business continuity.

10. Develop Agency staff to ensure they are able to make the very best of their skills and abilities.

The Agency implemented a programme of learning and development that has ensured that our staff are equipped to provide high quality services to our customers and that as an organisation we delivered on all of our equality and corporate governance commitments. Mindful of the importance of effective employee engagement the Agency has adopted coaching as its preferred style of management and all managers have now undertaken formal coaching training. We have now established a project team to embed coaching throughout the organisation and see this as a more holistic way of delivering on our people strategy. The Agency also held a staff conference on health and wellbeing in September 2014 and under the direction of our Board we are now committed to developing and implementing a Health and Wellbeing strategy in 2015-16. The Agency's commitment to good internal working relations was also reflected in the positive self-assessment by the management and trade union Joint Negotiating and Consultative Committee (JNCC) which is the recognised industrial relations forum within the Agency.

5.1 STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES cont'd...

11. Comply with statutory Equality obligations.

The Agency met its target of submitting the annual equality report to the Equality Commission by 31 August 2014. In consultation with the Equality Commission the Agency continues to review the composition (community background and gender) of its workforce in compliance with Article 55 of the Fair Employment and Treatment (Northern Ireland) Order 1998. The Agency adopts a risk based approach to all equality commitments; these risks were reviewed and endorsed by our Audit and Risk Assurance Committee in December 2014.

12. Consistently look for efficiencies in all that we do without detriment to maintaining high levels of service delivery.

The Agency's funding has been capped since 2010-11 and we have had to absorb annual pay and price increases while continuing to maintain levels of service in line with customers' expectations. The Agency introduced a very detailed system of budget monitoring to ensure that end year spend did not exceed our baseline and to ensure that we derived best value from our funding. A review of all discretionary expenditure was completed with more strict approval controls being introduced. The Agency's 2014-15 out-turn represented less than a 1% underspend which is a very positive achievement. The Agency has completed a major IT capital investment project with the development of a new software-based case management system to support our helpline and conciliation, mediation and arbitration services. This new system will provide the Agency with the capability to deliver more efficient and responsive services with enhanced reporting facilities.

13. Ensure that the Agency operates in a sustainable and environmentally responsible manner.

The Agency met its target to undertake an energy review by 30 November 2014. This has led to a 2% reduction in cost for heating and lighting. The Agency was also very proactive in delivering on its recycling commitments, however, plans to establish a sustainability project group have had to be deferred until 2015-16 because of staff changes. The Agency is working with DEL and DFP Properties Services Division to consider how the Agency's accommodation requirements can be met post the end of the current lease in 2019.

14. Demonstrate the Value for Money (VfM) of the Agency's services.

The Agency commissioned a review of the Agency's VfM activities which confirmed that satisfactory progress had been made in implementing many of the recommendations of the DEL 2010 quinquennial review of the Agency. We will continue to progress the VfM agenda; as a starting point the questionnaires used to evaluate the suite of advisory services have been redesigned to gather more outcome-focused data.

15. To operate the best and most appropriate channels of communication for clients to promote good employment relations.

The Agency has been actively engaged in rolling out its digital strategy as part of its commitment to deliver more on-line services. The Agency's new case management system has been enhanced with the inclusion of an accessible web portal and an on-line functionality which will allow for a series of transactions to be completed remotely. This stand-alone frontend web based facility was developed specifically by Acas to support the Early Conciliation service which was introduced in the rest of the UK in May 2015. The new system will allow claimants, respondents and their representatives to deposit all case related documentation electronically on-line via a secure and encrypted web portal. This will make the receipt and handling of this documentation quicker and more efficient as well as making the Agency more accessible to all related parties.

5.2 ADVISORY SERVICES

The work of Advisory Services, either working on our own or in partnership with other organisations, is concentrated on promoting good employment practice and developing employment relations skills among both employers and employees in Northern Ireland (NI). The emphasis on customer service and demonstrating value for money are part of Advisory Services DNA and it is very encouraging that all of our performance indicators reveal the value placed on Advisory Services by its customers.

Demand for the Helpline service has remained relatively constant year on year but this year has seen a number of staffing changes and these, coupled with the consequential necessary lead in training for new advisors, has resulted in a reduction in the number of calls being handled by the Helpline - 22,579 calls (compared to 24,079 last year); resulting in 55,272 (compared to 54,020 last year) separate enquiries being raised. Activity levels against some key performance indicators have also fallen slightly due to the reduction in the number of advisors available. However, advisors reported an increase in the complexity of issues raised particularly following any developments in legislation or case law. Of particular note was the introduction of shared parental leave and the calculation of holiday pay which tested the knowledge and expertise of our advisors. We also gathered data on users of the Helpline which indicated that, where the information is provided, 32% of callers are using the Helpline for the first time and 25% of callers are from micro businesses. To improve our systems we introduced an electronic system for recording enquiries to the Helpline as a prelude to an Integrated Case Management System being fully installed into the Agency.

We have provided advice and guidance through our seminars, workshops and document review service to all sizes of organisation from micro to large (250+ employees). Our programme of public seminars, which is regularly refreshed with new topics and promoted on our website and also through our network of delivery partners, saw attendees from organisations in all size categories. In addition to the planned programme of events, we also responded to a variety of requests from numerous organisations to provide tailored training in employment relations skills. Topics such as Conducting Employment Investigations, Social Media and the Employment Relationship, Handling Discipline and Grievance and Bullying in the Workplace are the areas in most demand. Our one-hour briefing sessions on topical employment relations issues such as the handling of difficult workplace conversations and variation of contract seem to be meeting the demand for knowledge and skills in a condensed timeframe. Advisory workshops continue to provide participants with the skills and knowledge to develop and maintain basic employment relations documentation. A continuing trend from last year is the number of requests for information on casual contracts and variation of contract matters from those attending the workshops.

Demand for reviewing employment documentation remains a feature of the Agency's work with organisations asking the Agency to review and comment on their policies and procedures. As in previous years we have placed emphasis on customer service and completing this work within 3 months from the date of receipt and have managed to do so in the majority of cases. Notable this year is the increase in the number of company handbooks that the Agency has been asked to review and the associated number of procedures contained within each of these handbooks. Policies covering whistleblowing and family friendly working arrangements are an increasing feature of most of the handbooks reviewed and on which the Agency is being asked to comment.

Advisory Services continued to pursue a process of strategic targeting for Good Employment Practice projects. The first objective of this strategy has been to influence improvement in employment relations at a structural and systemic level with public sector re-organisation being the primary vehicle for this objective. The second objective was to seek opportunities to deliver this kind of work in sectors where the Agency has had limited influence in the past.

5.2 ADVISORY SERVICES cont'd...

A major part of the strategy has been focused on the local government sector. The Agency was engaged by the sector to assist in the production of a new regional bargaining structure for the new eleven council model following the implementation of the Review of Public Administration (RPA) in April 2015. This was coupled with the Agency's strategic offer to assist all eleven of the new councils with the many challenges during the early transitional phase.

We have also been able to initiate new arrangements for joint working within the third sector. This has led to projects with both Addiction N.I. and Business in the Community to improve employer awareness of managing drugs and alcohol in the workplace and to provide support with the production of drugs and alcohol policies within employment contexts. Projects were conducted, and indeed in some cases remain ongoing, with health trusts regarding the reform of industrial relations machinery and related facility arrangements. Work continued during the year with the Agency having a presence as an independent member of the Confederation of British Industry (CBI) Employment and Skills Committee and the Agency engages on a quarterly basis with the Northern Ireland Committee – Irish Congress Trade Unions (NIC-ICTU) regarding recent developments in employment relations. Training was delivered to two large private sector employers on topics such as the roles and responsibilities of information and consultation representatives and employer's roles and responsibilities regarding trade unions and industrial action. Other training was delivered jointly to the management and trade union sides within the education sector and this has now become an annual calendar fixture. The Agency has also assisted NIC-ICTU to devise, develop and deliver modules for the Trade Union Studies and Lifelong Learning education and training programme with a view to educating trade unionists from a good employment practice perspective. The Agency helped produce the fifth joint LRA/Equality Commission E-Zine on developments in employment and equality law with a sixth edition planned for later in 2015.

Given the recent developments in employment law in Great Britain (GB) and the impending publication of an Employment Bill for Northern Ireland we have been working closely with key stakeholders such as the CBI and NIC-ICTU to examine the potential ramifications of statutory reforms in Northern Ireland. The Agency has been proactive during the year to keep other stakeholders apprised of the differences between employment law regulation in NI and GB and what the likely impact will be on their and their members' organisations. The continuing trend in demand for on-line knowledge is reflected in the number of visits to the Agency's website and validates the constant effort made in updating and adding to the range of information provided on our website.

5.3 CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION

The Agency's Conciliation and Arbitration Section offers effective and confidential services aimed at resolving workplace disputes.

The Conciliation service provides assistance to employers and employees on both individual rights claims and collective disputes.

The Mediation service focuses on restoring productive working relationships between individuals or groups where these have broken down. Mediation is delivered by our team of in-house accredited workplace mediators.

The Arbitration service arranges arbitration hearings in connection with:

- Independent Appeals that form part of collective agreements; and
- Those opting to have their case heard under the Statutory Arbitration Scheme as an alternative to the Employment Tribunal.

These hearings are conducted by an independent person who is appointed by the Agency from its panel of Arbitrators.

2014-15 has been another very busy year for the section and all key performance indicators relating to the delivery of services have been exceeded.

During the year 2014-15 there was an increased demand for the Agency's Individual Conciliation service with a 38% increase in the number of cases received. This is mainly due to a significant increase in the number of multiple claims received. The percentage of cases settled following our involvement also increased when compared to last year. During this fourth year of our enhanced Pre-Claim Conciliation Service (PCC), referrals from our Helpline have dropped slightly but were in line with 2012-13 results. Engagement levels for this service have remained high and it is again encouraging to note that a high percentage reach an agreement thus avoiding having to proceed to tribunal with their complaint. Cases received for collective conciliation assistance increased slightly this year. Of particular note was our involvement in the successful resolution of a major industrial dispute where industrial action was ongoing. The resolution followed a very intensive period of collective conciliation over a period of three to four weeks involving three trade unions. A number of the other disputes referred to the Agency involved complex issues which, if they had not been resolved, could have escalated to industrial action.

Requests for our Mediation service saw a slight decrease during this reporting year. Having said this, the number of referrals for team/group mediation was high alongside a number of referrals that were highly complex. The majority of mediation referrals were received from the public sector and within that category the majority came from the education sector. The second largest category for referrals was the private sector. The settlement rate for those engaging in the process remained high at 84%.

Cases received for independent appeal decreased slightly from 32 in 2013-14 to 30 in 2014-15 with no significant changes in the source of referrals, or the type of dispute.

Agreement to utilise the Statutory Arbitration Scheme remains encouraging with six arbitration agreements received and five hearings concluded during this reporting year. One case settled without a hearing and six arbitration awards were issued in the reporting year. There is a growing confidence in the Statutory Arbitration Scheme and the evaluation survey responses show a very high satisfaction rate from all participants engaged in the process. The majority of participants who responded to the survey stated that they would recommend the Scheme to a colleague or friend.

During 2014 the section changed its approach to the evaluation of services. Our surveys continue to focus on outputs as well as satisfaction levels but Mediation and Arbitration services are now evaluated on a continuous basis with surveys sent to participants six weeks after the delivery of the service. Responses to date demonstrate continued high satisfaction rates with both service delivery and outcomes.

5.3 CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION cont'd...

In addition to the on-going surveys the section also conducted a customer survey covering the Individual Conciliation service. The responses are currently being collated and the survey report will be published on our website in due course.

Plans for replacement of the existing Individual Case Management System (ICMS) used to manage the delivery of the Individual Conciliation service have been on-going for a number of years. This was required as the existing system was no longer fit for purpose. This year saw the refinement of the requirements for the new Case Management System (CMS) which will be used to electronically manage and collate information on all of the dispute resolution services. The replacement CMS was installed within a six month period and will be ready for use at the start of the new operational year (April 2015). The development and installation of the replacement CMS involved an enormous amount of staff time and effort to ensure that the system would meet the needs of the section. However the efficiencies and effectiveness that the new CMS will bring to the section will greatly facilitate our work. In addition the new CMS has been constructed so that any future planned changes to employment legislation can be easily incorporated into the system. The CMS will also enhance our management information function.

5.3.1 PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Performance Indicators 2014-15	Performance at 31 March 2015
1. Days saved deriving from no more than 20% of individual rights claims, excluding strike outs/insolvency ¹ , being heard at Tribunal.	5% of cases dealt with during the year (excluding strike out and insolvency cases) were determined by the Tribunal. With strike out and insolvency cases included the percentage is 13%.
2. No less than 60% of pre-claim referrals from the Helpline agree to conciliation within 3 months of receipt.	74% of pre-claim conciliation referrals from the Helpline agreed to participate in conciliation.
3. Involvement of Agency in 70% of reported collective disputes.	The Agency has made contact with the parties in all known disputes.
4. Promotion of a settlement in 70% of disputes in which the Agency is involved.	Promotion of a settlement was achieved in 85% of cases concluded during the reporting year.
5. Promotion of a settlement in 70% of mediation referrals to the Agency and where mediation takes place.	Promotion of a settlement was achieved in 84% of the referrals where mediation took place.
6. 80% of Arbitrations/Independent Appeal hearings undertaken within agreed timescales as per operational guidelines.	Parties have been contacted within the timescales outlined in operational guidelines. Under the Statutory Arbitration Scheme 100% of cases referred have had hearings arranged within the two month target period.

¹ These cases are excluded as the Agency is not able to influence the outcome via conciliation.

5.4 CORPORATE MANAGEMENT

The Corporate Management of the Agency is achieved through three main functional areas namely, Finance and Compliance, Systems and Human Resources and Business.

Within the wider corporate services business a comprehensive set of services are provided which include administrative support, procurement, statutory compliance, information technology and facilities. It also supports the Agency Board and its Sub-Committees, asset administration and management, equality and diversity, health and safety, corporate social responsibility and public relations. Corporate Management is also responsible for outsourced services (legal, security, property management etc.) as well as organisational and administrative responsibility for the Northern Ireland Certification Office.

FINANCE AND COMPLIANCE

From the Statement of Cash Flows for 2014-15, the organisation received £3,772,000 grant-in-aid. However, its cash outflows (from operating and investing activities) were £3,708,530 resulting in a net increase in cash and cash equivalents of £63,470. This led to an increased bank balance at the end of the year of £120,284. Current liabilities less current assets were £44,338.

Payments to suppliers in 10 days were 75%, (2013-14: 63%) and in 30 days, 97% (2013-14: 96%).

An up-to-date Register of Board Members' Interests was maintained by the Chief Executive and is available from the Agency's Headquarters. Chairman's salary and other Board members' fees amounted to £70,776 excluding social security and pension costs. Current ordinary Board member salary rates are £5,200 per annum; this rate followed a pay increase of 1% from 1 August 2014.

The Agency remains committed to equality of opportunity and continued to meet all corporate commitments as set out in our Equality Scheme. Equality action plans were established on a risk basis under the direction of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee (ARAC), with progress being reported to the Board bi-monthly and annually to the Equality Commission.

SYSTEMS

The section supplied project management services for the development of a new case management system which was delivered on target at the financial year end. The new Information Systems Managed Services contract for all of our systems support has now been fully embedded and also configured to accommodate the new case management system. An intranet project was carried forward with the objective of going live at the end of April 2015, and the project remains on target. The Agency's network infrastructure was successfully tested to ensure that information continued to be held securely. Throughout the year a wide range of supporting initiatives were progressed including participation in a European Union (EU) funded scheme to significantly enhance network speeds along with continuity planning and upgrading of the network infrastructure to offer enhanced security and capacity. Mobile phones were made available to staff for use in supporting peripatetic working.

HUMAN RESOURCES AND BUSINESS

The revised Human Resources Strategy was progressed following Board approval of a Leadership and Management Framework. As a consequence, all line managers have been trained in coaching skills. A range of Health and Wellbeing initiatives were identified and were the focus of a successful staff conference held in September. The Human Resources section took the lead in defining the content and direction of the Agency's intranet project. In line with the Agency's Reward and Recognition Policy, the Board took the opportunity during the Christmas period to meet and commend staff for their continued commitment to the Agency.

There was a strong emphasis on team working with cross directorate groups being established for corporate governance, information systems, engagement and customer service. In addition, 2 other groups were more recently established focusing on disability and cost reduction.

The Agency is currently accredited with the Investors in People (IiP) Bronze award. During 2014-15 the Agency concentrated on monitoring and improving organisational processes and procedures with the aim of achieving the IiP Silver award in 2015-16.

5.4 CORPORATE MANAGEMENT cont'd...

During 2014-15 the average sickness absence level rose slightly to 10.4 days compared with 10.2 days in 2013-14. Long term sickness absence accounted for 3.9 days compared with 3 days during the previous year. Remedial action continues to place strong emphasis on wellbeing initiatives and procedural development/application. In this respect, an action plan arising from the 2013-14 Stress Risk Assessment, is being actively progressed. A staff survey was also undertaken in June 2014 with generally positive results which have been analysed and reported to the Board.

The Agency and in particular the General Office continued to make a significant contribution to achieving value for money. In 2014-15, the General Office achieved around 15% savings from its supply decisions compared with the prior year whilst still delivering on all operational staff requirements.

Formal arrangements continue to be supported to allow for meaningful trade union consultation. The Agency's Joint Negotiating and Consultative Committee (JNCC) self-assessed itself against good practice standards. One of the areas identified for improvement was reducing the time for procedural consultation.

Briefings on the operational implications of the level of Agency's funding and the Corporate and Business Plans were held on a regular basis.

5.4.1 PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Performance Indicators 2014-15	Performance at 31 March 2015
1. At least "satisfactory" rating in the internal audit annual assurance.	Internal audit provided a satisfactory assurance in relation to the effective and efficient achievement of Agency objectives.
2. Satisfactory draft Report to those charged with Governance from the external auditor.	The draft indicated that "The overall quality, effectiveness and transparency of financial reporting and accounting were sufficient. There were no significant difficulties encountered during the audit."
3. Full compliance recorded in stewardship statements (e.g. Permanent Secretary).	The CEO provided positive assurances to the DEL Permanent Secretary twice in the accounting period.
4. Full compliance with standards/targets in the IS Managed Services contract.	Performance targets for Service Level Requirements, as set out in the IS Managed Services Contract, have been met for the period 2014-15. This reflects systems availability across all services of greater than 99.8%.
5. No reportable accidents arise for inclusion in the Health and Safety Accident Book per annum.	No reportable accidents occurred, i.e. accidents resulting in death, major injuries or injuries lasting over seven days.

MANAGING ATTENDANCE

Staff sickness and absence is managed in accordance with a pilot Absence Policy currently under review. In 2014-15, sickness absence was 10.4 days per member of staff (2013-14: 10.2 days). The results have been analysed and reported to the Board.

Remuneration Report

REMUNERATION REPORT FOR YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2015

REMUNERATION POLICY

As an NDPB, members of staff of the Labour Relations Agency are not civil servants. However, staff of the Agency, whether on permanent or temporary contract, are subject to levels of remuneration and terms and conditions of service (including superannuation) within the general NICS pay structure as approved by the Department and DFP.

The remuneration of senior civil servants is set by the Minister for Finance and Personnel. The Minister approved a restructured SCS pay settlement broadly in line with the Senior Salaries Review Board report which he commissioned in 2010. The commitment to a Pay and Grading review for SCS was the second phase of the equal pay settlement approved by the Executive.

SERVICE CONTRACTS

Civil service appointments are made in accordance with the Civil Service Commissioners' Recruitment Code, which requires appointment to be on merit on the basis of fair and open competition but also includes the circumstances when appointments may otherwise be made.

Unless otherwise stated below, the officials covered by this report hold appointments which are open-ended. Early termination, other than for misconduct, would result in the individual receiving compensation as set out in the Civil Service Compensation Scheme.

Further information about the work of the Civil Service Commissioners can be found at www.nicscommissioners.org

NORTHERN IRELAND CIVIL SERVICE PENSION ARRANGEMENTS

Pension benefits are provided through the Northern Ireland Civil Service pension arrangements which are administered by Civil Service Pensions (CSP). Staff in post prior to 30 July 2007 may be in one of three statutory based 'final salary' defined benefit arrangements (classic, premium, and classic plus). These arrangements are unfunded with the cost of benefits met by monies voted by the Assembly each year. From April 2011, pensions payable under classic, premium, and classic plus are increased annually in line with changes in the Consumer Prices Index (CPI). Prior to 2011, pensions were increased in line with changes in the Retail Prices Index (RPI). New entrants joining on or after 1 October 2002 and before 30 July 2007 could choose between membership of premium or joining a good quality 'money purchase' stakeholder arrangement with a significant employer contribution (partnership pension account). New entrants joining on or after 30 July 2007 are eligible for membership of the nuvos arrangement or they can opt for a partnership pension account. Nuvos is a "Career Average Revalued Earnings" (CARE) arrangement in which members accrue pension benefits at a percentage rate of annual pensionable earnings throughout the period of scheme membership. The current rate is 2.3%. CARE pension benefits are increased annually in line with increases in the CPI.

A new pension scheme, alpha, will be introduced for new entrants from 1 April 2015. The majority of existing members of the NICS pension arrangements will move to alpha from that date. Members who in 1 April 2012 were within 10 years of their normal pension age will not move to alpha and those who were with 13.5 years and 10 years of their normal pension age were given a choice between moving to alpha on 1 April 2015 or at a later date determined by their age. Alpha is also a "Career Average Revalued Earnings" (CARE) arrangement in which members accrue pension benefits at a percentage rate of annual pensionable earnings throughout the period of scheme membership. The rate will be 2.32%. CARE pension benefits are increased annually in line with increases in CPI.

For 2015, public service pensions will be increased by 1.2% for pensions which began before 6 April 2014. Pensions which began after 6 April 2014 will be increased proportionately.

The employee contribution rates for all members for the period covering 1st April 2015 to 31st March 2016 year are as follows:

SCHEME YEAR 1ST APRIL 2015 TO 31ST MARCH 2016

Pay band – assessed each pay period	Contribution rates- Classic members	Contribution rates- Classic plus, premium, nuvos and alpha
From – To	From 01 April 2015 to 31 March 2016	From 01 April 2015 to 31 March 2016
From £0 to £15,000.99	3%	4.6%
From £15,001 to £21,000.99	4.6%	4.6%
From £21,001 to £47,000.99	5.45%	5.45%
From £47,001 to £150,000.99	7.35%	7.35%
£150,001 and above	8.05%	8.05%

Benefits in classic accrue at the rate of 1/80th of pensionable salary for each year of service. In addition, a lump sum equivalent to three years' pension is payable on retirement. For premium, benefits accrue at the rate of 1/60th of final pensionable earnings for each year of service. Unlike classic, there is no automatic lump sum (but members may give up (commute) some of their pension to provide a lump sum). Classic plus is essentially a variation of premium, but with benefits in respect of service before 1 October 2002 calculated broadly as per classic.

The partnership pension account is a stakeholder pension arrangement. The employer makes a basic contribution of between 3% and 12.5% (depending on the age of the member) into a stakeholder pension product chosen by the employee. The employee does not have to contribute but where they do make contributions, the employer will match these up to a limit of 3% of pensionable salary (in addition to the employer's basic contribution). Employers also contribute a further 0.8% of pensionable salary to cover the cost of centrally-provided risk benefit cover (death in service and ill health retirement).

The accrued pension quoted is the pension the member is entitled to receive when they reach pension age, or immediately on ceasing to be an active member of the scheme if they are at or over pension age. Pension age is 60 for members of classic, premium, and classic plus and 65 for members of nuvos. The normal pension age in alpha will be linked to the member's State Pension Age but cannot be before age 65. Further details about the NICS pension arrangements can be found at the website www.dfpni.gov.uk/civilservicepensions-ni.

CASH EQUIVALENT TRANSFER VALUES

A Cash Equivalent Transfer Value (CETV) is the actuarially assessed capitalised value of the pension scheme benefits accrued by a member at a particular point in time. The benefits valued are the member's accrued benefits and any contingent spouse's pension payable from the scheme. A CETV payment made by a pension scheme or arrangement to secure pension benefits in another pension scheme or arrangement when the member leaves a scheme and chooses to transfer the benefits accrued in their former scheme. The pension figures shown relate to the benefits that the individual has accrued as a consequence of their total membership of the pension scheme, not just their service in a senior capacity to which disclosure applies. The CETV figures and from 2003-04 the other pension details, include the value of any pension benefit in another scheme or arrangement which the individual has transferred to the NICS pension arrangements. They also include any additional pension benefit accrued to the member as a result of their purchasing additional years of pension service in the scheme at their own cost. CETVs are calculated in accordance with the Occupational Pension Schemes (Transfer Values) (Amendment) Regulations and do not take account of any actual or potential benefits resulting from Lifetime Allowance Tax which may be due when pension benefits are taken.

REAL INCREASE IN CETV

This reflects the increase in CETV effectively funded by the employer. It does include the increase in accrued pension due to inflation and contributions paid by the employee (including the value of any benefits transferred from another pension scheme or arrangement) and uses common market valuation factors for the start and end of the period.

ILL-HEALTH RETIREMENT

There were no staff retiring due to ill-health in the 2014-15 year.

EXIT PACKAGES

No exit packages were provided to staff in the 2014-15 year.

COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OF OFFICE

No members of staff leaving the Agency in 2014-15 received compensation for loss of office.

Reporting Bodies are required to disclose the relationship between the remuneration of the highest paid director in their organisation and the median remuneration of the organisation's workforce.

To calculate the median salary all salaries (other than that of the highest paid "director") were listed in order of value and the median between the highest and lowest was taken.

In 2014-15, one employee, the Chief Executive was the highest-paid director with remuneration of £80-85k. In 2013-14, the Chief Executive was also the highest-paid director with remuneration of £80-85k.

Therefore, the banded remuneration of the highest-paid director in the Labour Relations Agency in the financial year 2014-15 was £80-85k. This was 2.84 times the median remuneration of the workforce, which was £29,027.

Total remuneration includes salary, non-consolidated performance-related pay, and benefits-in-kind. It does not include severance payments, employer pension contributions and the cash equivalent transfer value of pensions.

STATEMENT OF THE AGENCY'S AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Background information

The Labour Relations Agency is an executive Non-Departmental Public Body sponsored by the Department for Employment and Learning established in 1976 under the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 and continued by the Industrial Relations Order (Northern Ireland) 1992.

Under paragraph 15(2) of Schedule 4 to the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1992 the Agency is required to prepare a statement of accounts in the form and on the basis determined by the Department for Employment and Learning, with the approval of the Department of Finance and Personnel. The accounts are prepared on an accruals basis and must give a true and fair view of the Agency's state of affairs at the year end and of its income and expenditure, statement of change in reserves and cash flows for the financial year.

In preparing the accounts the Agency is required to:

- observe the accounts direction issued by the Department for Employment and Learning, including the relevant accounting and disclosure requirements, and apply suitable accounting policies on a consistent basis;
- make judgements and estimates on a reasonable basis;
- state whether applicable IFRS accounting standards have been followed and disclose and explain any material departures in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Labour Relations Agency will continue in operation.

The Accounting Officer of the Department for Employment and Learning has designated the Chief Executive of the Agency as the Accounting Officer. The Chief Executive's relevant responsibilities as Accounting Officer, including responsibility for the propriety and regularity of the public finances and for the keeping of proper records, are set out in the non-departmental public bodies Accounting Officer's Memorandum (Chapter 3 – Managing Public Money Northern Ireland), issued by the Department of Finance and Personnel.

LRA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2014-15

1. SCOPE OF RESPONSIBILITY

As Accounting Officer, I have responsibility for maintaining a sound system of governance and internal control that supports the achievement of the LRA's policies, aims and objectives, whilst safeguarding the public funds and assets for which I am personally responsible, in accordance with the responsibilities assigned to me in Managing Public Money (NI). In delivering this role I am supported by the LRA's Senior Management Team and the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee which regularly monitors LRA risk management activities.

2. THE PURPOSE OF THE SYSTEM OF INTERNAL CONTROL

This Governance Statement, for which I, as Accounting Officer, take responsibility, is designed to give a clear understanding of how the duties detailed above have been carried out during 2014-15.

The LRA is a non-departmental public body, governed by a Board. The Board is responsible for determining the LRA's strategic direction, policies and priorities, and ensuring its statutory duties are carried out effectively. The Board is supported by two sub-committees, namely the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee and the Finance & Personnel Committee. Day-to-day operations are managed by a Senior Management Team (SMT) comprising the Chief Executive (Chair) and three Heads of Business, namely Director (Conciliation and Arbitration), Director (Advisory Services) and Director (Corporate Services).

The LRA is sponsored by the Department for Employment and Learning (DEL), with whom it has regular meetings. In addition it provides DEL with a Strategic Risk Register, audit papers / reports, and regular financial management information. The respective roles of the LRA and the Permanent Secretary for DEL are set out in the DEL LRA Management Statement and Financial Memorandum.

3. THE LRA'S GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

The governance structure is designed to manage risk to a reasonable level rather than to eliminate all risk of failure to achieve policies, aims and objectives; it can therefore only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance of effectiveness. The system of internal control is based on an ongoing process designed to identify and prioritise the risks to the achievement of the LRA's policies, aims and objectives, to evaluate the likelihood of those risks being realised and the impact should they be realised, and to manage them efficiently, effectively and economically.

The system of governance has been in place throughout the year ended 31 March 2015 and up to the date of approval of the Annual Report and Accounts 2014-15, and accords with the Code of Good Practice (NI) 2013. While the 2013 Code is written for departments, it concentrates throughout on key principles. As such Non Departmental Public Bodies are encouraged to consider and adopt the practices set out in the Code wherever it is relevant and practical and suits their business needs. A review of the Code has indicated that the Agency is in full compliance in this context.

The LRA's governance structure provides clarity and accountability in managing the delivery of its objectives. It ensures that the LRA has the capacity to make decisions, monitor performance and assess and manage resources and risk.

LRA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2014-15 cont'd....

THE LRA BOARD

The LRA Board sets the LRA strategic direction, policies and priorities, and ensures that the LRA meets its agreed strategic objectives and targets. The Board also strives to observe the highest standards of corporate governance, in line with the provisions of the Code of Good Practice (NI). The LRA Board Code of Good Practice & Standing Orders coupled with the LRA Board Code of Conduct sets out the general responsibilities of Members of the Board.

The Board consists of the Chair and nine members from employer, employee and independent backgrounds, appointed by the Minister of the Department for Employment and Learning. The Board considers itself to be effective in:

- establishing the LRA's overall strategic direction within the policy framework set out in statute and the resources framework agreed with the Permanent Secretary for DEL;
- overseeing the delivery of planned results by monitoring performance against agreed strategic objectives and targets;
- ensuring that the Board operates within the limits of its statutory authority, within the limits of the Board's financial authority agreed with DEL and in accordance with any other conditions relating to the use of public funds. Members of the Board have a duty to ensure that public funds are properly safeguarded and that the LRA conducts its operations as economically, efficiently and effectively as possible, with full regard to relevant statutory provisions;
- formulating a strategy for implementing the Freedom of Information Act, including prompt response to public requests for information;
- ensuring that the service operates sound environmental policies and practices in accordance with relevant Government guidance; and
- ensuring that high standards of corporate governance are observed at all times.

The Board's quorum is five. The Board and Members' attendance at Board meetings for 2014-15 was as follows:

Jim McCusker (Chair to July 2014)	2/2
Marie Mallon (Chair from August 2014)	8/8
Sally McKee	7/10
Albert Mills	8/10
Trevor Morrow (to November 2014)	5/6

LRA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2014-15 cont'd....

THE AUDIT AND RISK ASSURANCE COMMITTEE

The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee is a sub-committee of the LRA Board and supports the Chief Executive in his responsibilities for issues of risk, control and governance, finance and associated assurance. The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee is an advisory body with no executive powers. The Committee's membership is constituted by members of the Board with members of the SMT, Internal and External Audit, and its sponsor team in DEL in attendance. Although not explicitly audited every year, in their 2012-13 report on Corporate Governance, Internal Audit found that the LRA had developed clear governance structures, comprising a Board, Sub-Committees of the Board and a Senior Management Team.

The specific duties of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee are to:

- review corporate governance assurances including the LRA's systems for the assessment and management of risk, the Governance Statement and monitoring arrangements for maintaining standards of business conduct and probity;
- review the accounting policies and accounts including the process for review of the accounts prior to submission for audit, levels of error identified and management's letter of representation to the external auditors;
- consider the planned activity and results of both internal and external audit work;
- consider the adequacy of management's response to issues identified by audit activity, including external audit's Management Letter; and
- consider assurances relating to the corporate governance requirements for the LRA.

The LRA has an established cycle of three Audit and Risk Assurance Committee meetings for each financial year; the June meetings primarily focus on the outcomes from the external audits as set out in the 'Report to those charged with Governance' as well as consideration of the annual report and accounts; the October meetings concentrate on general corporate governance matters which includes a detailed review of the Agency's corporate risk register; and the third meeting normally held in March considers the work of the internal audits service and more particularly the Annual Statement of Assurance. Under the direction of the Chairman the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee is assiduous in ensuring that the committee delivers on its terms of reference; conducts a detailed self-assessment on a cyclical basis using a tailored version of the National Audit Office checklist; and where appropriate adjusts its agenda to address any emerging business critical matters.

In the 2014-15 year only three meetings were held with a fourth planned meeting being deferred into 2015-16 for the following reasons;

- the procurement of a new contract for internal audit services;
- clarification of the Agency's 2015-16 funding allocation led to a renegotiation of the 2014-15 Internal Audit Plan which resulted in the 'flexibility in service delivery' study being deferred to the 2015-16 year and being replaced by a high level review of the Agency's financial systems; and
- the resultant delays in the completion of all necessary internal audit fieldwork as changes to the internal audit plan could not be ratified until after the appointment of the new Chief Executive/Accounting Officer at the end of March 2015

THE AUDIT AND RISK ASSURANCE COMMITTEE cont'd ...

The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee's quorum is three. For the three meetings held in 2014-15, membership and attendance were as follows:

Gordon Parkes (Chair)	3/3
Alison Millar	3/3
Gary McMichael	2/3
Pauline Shepherd	3/3
Neal Willis ¹	2/2
Lyn Fawcett ¹	1/2

The Chair of the Audit Committee submits a formal annual report to the Board in June of each year, the next report will be considered at the June 2015 Board meeting. This report covers the following matters:

- the monitoring and control ethos of the Committee with a particular focus on the content of the Agency's corporate risk register;
- number of Committee meetings held and record of attendance;
- the methods and outcome of the Committee's formal self-assessment;
- the Committee's review of audit arrangements including their quality and the procurement of internal audit services (which was at the specification stage) as well as advice on the appropriateness of the internal audit programme for the upcoming financial year ;
- progress on audits including report findings, actions taken by management and (if known) the conclusions of the annual (internal) audit assurance and content of the NIAO's Report To Those Charged with Governance.

THE FINANCE & PERSONNEL (F&P) COMMITTEE

The purpose of the F&P sub-committee of the Board is, on behalf of the Board, to:

- receive and consider current information on the strategic challenges that the organisation faces and to satisfy itself that the Financial systems and processes, IS/IT and HR Strategies and accompanying in-year action plans are aligned with the needs of the business. In debating these issues, Board members of the sub-committee are encouraged to bring to bear their particular expertise in helping the organisation deal with some of those challenges;
- review the performance appraisal of the Chief Executive as carried out by the Board Chair; and
- assure the Board that the organisation continues to make progress towards its commitments under Equality and Diversity.

The F&P Committee fulfills an advisory role and its quorum is three. The F&P Committee met once in 2014-15. This was because a significant proportion of the business issues normally remitted to the Committee by the Agency's Board had been fully addressed in the course of normal full Board meetings. In light of this development the Board at its March 2015 meeting took the view that it was important to re-evaluate the merits of retaining the F&P Committee. To inform the Board's thinking it was agreed that advice should be sought from CIPFA on what constituted good practice in relation to the use of Board sub-committees. Following on from this, the Board has determined that the F&P Committee should be retained but that there is a need to review its terms of reference.

THE SENIOR MANAGEMENT TEAM (SMT)

Membership of the Senior Management Team consists of the Chief Executive and the three Heads of Business/ Directors. The SMT is responsible for the day-to-day management of the LRA. All major policies are implemented and significant operational are considered and made by the SMT. Meetings are held weekly with formal minuted meetings being held on a bi-monthly basis, i.e. 6 times per year and published on the LRA's website.

The terms of reference for the SMT set out the specific objectives that support the delivery of the Board's priorities. These objectives are as follows:

- protect and enhance the LRA's reputation of improving employment relations and working life;
- develop and draft the LRA's Corporate and Business Plans;
- monitor, improve and report on the LRA's performance against objectives set out in annual Business Plans;
- ensure the delivery of the LRA's statutory duties, powers and strategic objectives making certain that appropriate processes and reasonable controls are maintained;
- ensure that all public funds made available to the LRA, including any approved income or other receipts, are used in accordance with the statutory duties, and that these, together with the LRA's assets, equipment and staff, are used economically, efficiently and effectively;
- ensure that the LRA maintains effective change management systems, enabling the organisation to continuously improve the delivery of its mission and services; and
- ensure that the LRA meets its statutory duties under Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act (1998), in respect of external service delivery and internal policies and procedures.

ASSESSMENT OF EFFECTIVENESS

According to best corporate governance practice, all Boards and sub-committees should carry out an annual assessment of their effectiveness.

The Board Chairman is appraised by the Department annually. The Board Chairman undertakes Board member appraisals on an annual basis. In addition, the Board has completed a self-assessment of its performance for the year 2014-15. In general, it is in compliance with generally accepted standards for Boards in Northern Ireland and a number of points have been passed to management to allow the Board's further development. The Board also took time out in February 2015 to review the effectiveness of the Agency's operations and identified a range of improvement priorities under the following themes; strategic direction, Board operations, engagement and governance/accountability.

This review was in part informed by the work of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee. As already highlighted the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee conducts a detailed self-assessment on a cyclical basis using a tailored version of National Audit Office checklists specifically designed for audit committees. I am cognizant that the National Audit Office checklist suggests that an audit and risk assessment committee should meet four times per year but it is an accepted convention that for smaller arms-length bodies three meetings represent an acceptable level of activity. I understand that the deferment of the March 2015 meeting of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee could be viewed as an unhelpful delay in reviewing the work of the internal audit service as well considering the external audit strategy. As explained under the section of the governance statement dealing specifically with the Audit and Risk Assessment Committee there were robust mitigating reasons for deferring the March 2015 until June 2015. That said I am content that adequate compensatory actions were taken to mitigate any risks arising from this delay. I had early sight of the draft internal audit reports and was satisfied that there were no areas of concern that required an emergency meeting of the Audit and Risk Committee. Also as highlighted by the Chair of the Audit and Risk Assessment Committee there has been little variation in the content of the external audit strategy for the last number of financial years; again if there had been any substantial changes in the 2014-15 strategy an earlier meeting would have been arranged. I have also had ongoing discussions with the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee on all of the matters relating to the deferment of the March 2015 meeting.

In summary, the Audit and Risk Committee considers itself to be in acceptable compliance with the National Audit Office requirements; however the 2014-15 self-assessment has highlighted some development areas, particularly in terms of the number and timing of meetings, to ensure full compliance with best practice in 2015-16.

In 2013-14, the Board commented favorably on the quality of management reporting to the Board and over the 2014-15 period has since generally affirmed the general acceptability of information received by the Board. Information received by the Board during that financial year was considered adequate to allow the Board to exercise its overall functions of (1) keeping in touch with current employment relations issues and stakeholders (2) determining the policy, strategy and business agenda of the Agency and (3) ensuring the effective performance of the Agency through acceptable general governance and management arrangements as delivered by the Chief Executive/Accounting Officer and the Senior Management Team. The effectiveness of the information provided in 2014-15 is currently under review by the Board with a re-specification of their requirements being carried forward into 2015-16.

4. THE RISK AND INTERNAL CONTROL FRAMEWORK

It is the Board / Audit and Risk Assurance Committee on the advice of the Chief Executive which decides on the risk appetite of the Agency. In policy terms, the position of the Agency is as follows:

- a) For matters of statutory and legal compliance and for matters linked with public sector values such as fairness and openness, the Agency is risk averse. This means that it will maximise its controls in this area and avoid significant levels of residual risk wherever possible. Where not avoidable, the Agency will protect itself, for example through the provision of contingencies and insurance.
- b) For matters which are in the realm of developing good employment relations within the province and which have the potential to directly or indirectly stimulate the economy, the Agency will be willing to accept a degree of risk which is commensurate with that in the province's economic and business environment. However, in that context, the formality of its risk assessment and the management arrangements and controls put in place to mitigate risk will be scrutinised firstly by the Senior Management Team and thereafter by the Board through its Audit and Risk Assurance Committee.

The LRA Board retains overall responsibility for the management of risk in the organisation. At least annually, the Board will review and challenge the whole Strategic Risk Register including the appetite for risk. At each Audit and Risk Assurance Committee meeting, the risks are reviewed to ensure that risk management processes are in place and working. The Chair of the Audit Committee reports back to the Board after each meeting. Also the Chair of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee submits an annual report to the Board.

The SMT meets regularly to consider the plans and strategic direction of the LRA and assesses and monitors key strategic risks within the business planning cycle. The risk management policy defines how risk is managed and is explicit on the roles and responsibilities of all relevant staff.

The identification and assessment of risk is embedded within the LRA business planning cycle. The LRA Business Plan and programme/project plans are considered as part of the development and review of the risk register. All projects contain an explicit assessment of risk. The Agency's (Section 75) Equality Scheme is highly influenced by an "Audit of Inequalities", the output of which is a statement of Equality Risk which is incorporated in the Risk Register.

LRA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2014-15 cont'd....

4. THE RISK AND INTERNAL CONTROL FRAMEWORK cont'd...

The level of risk is determined by assessing the impact and time weighted likelihood of particular scenarios arising. The LRA currently recognises nine high level risks arising from the specific challenges facing the organisation in the employment relations field including the political and economic environment we work in. In summary terms, the most significant risks are as follows:

1. the Agency suffers reputational damage because it fails to respond effectively to significant changes in the employment relations environment arising from factors such as the economic climate;
2. the ongoing funding cuts reduce the Agency's capability to develop its staff resulting in lower staff morale and poorer provision of services;
3. the ongoing funding cuts reduce the Agency's capability to meet its corporate and business objectives;
4. older computer systems which have remained in operation will not meet emerging business need and may be undependable;
5. a replacement core computer system currently being procured may not be adequate because of poor design or project management;
6. the Agency's computer systems may be vulnerable to security breaches or poor performance through defective support contracts;
7. the Agency is unable to evidence that it provides value for money;
8. the Agency fails to ensure that obligations associated with its Equality Scheme are adequately met;
9. the Agency's strategic planning process is hampered by gaps in filling Board or staff vacancies.

None of the above risks was realised in the course of 2014-15. Although the above summaries for Risks 1 to 8 are the same as for the prior year, the complexion of each risk changed. This was particularly true for Risks 4, 5 and 6 where the near completion of a new case management system (Risk 5) is likely to result in a significant reduction in risk score in 2015-16 and the elimination of Risk 4. Ongoing funding constraints imply that risk scores in the case of Risks 1 to 3 and their future scoring remains uncertain.

5. REVIEW OF EFFECTIVENESS

As Accounting Officer, I have responsibility for conducting an annual review of the effectiveness of the system of the organisation's governance, risk management and internal control. My review of the effectiveness of the system of internal control is informed by the work of the Internal Auditors and the executive managers within the LRA who have responsibility for the development and maintenance of the internal control framework, and comments made by the external auditors in their management letter and other reports. I have been advised on the implications of the result of my review of the effectiveness of the system of internal control by the SMT and the Audit Committee and a plan to address weaknesses and ensure continuous improvement of the system is in place. This Governance Statement represents the end product of the review of the effectiveness of the governance framework, risk management and internal control.

A number of specific factors have been deployed to keep the system of control under review.

- The SMT meets regularly to consider the strategic direction, plans and operational performance of the LRA.
- The LRA's Audit and Risk Assurance Committee gives full consideration of internal and external audit reports.
- Reports by Internal Audit are to Public Sector Internal Audit Standards. Each year, the Head of Internal Audit provides an opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the LRA's system of internal control together with any recommendations for improvement.
- The Chair of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee reports to Board after each Audit Committee meeting.
- The SMT discusses progress made in implementing outstanding Internal Audit recommendations.

LRA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2014-15 cont'd....

5. REVIEW OF EFFECTIVENESS cont'd

- Overall, Internal Audit gave an overall “Satisfactory” opinion on the control and governance framework. Some minor control weaknesses were identified by Internal Audit during their reviews in the year. Appropriate action has been agreed and new procedures introduced to counter these weaknesses.
- In all respects the recommendations associated with the audit opinion have been accepted fully by management and are being implemented.
- An organisation-wide LRA Strategic Risk Register is maintained.
- Bi-monthly performance reports to the Board are provided which detail progress against business plan objectives and the extent of achievement of key performance indicators. These reports allow the Board and the SMT to make detailed decisions in relation to priorities and resources.
- Data security procedures are regularly reviewed and, where necessary, strengthened to ensure that personal information is safeguarded. There were no reported losses or breaches of data security during the year. The Labour Relations Agency is certified against ISO Standard ISO27001 – Information Security Management System: 2005. This certification was awarded 27th November 2012. The LRA has successfully passed the required 12 month subsidiary ISO 27001 Surveillance Audit with the confirmation report received in May 2015.

During this financial year, the LRA has continued to strive to achieve the optimum use of its resources in light of reducing budgets. Significant progress has been made. The impact of the in-year budget cuts has seen a substantial reduction in the learning and development received by staff and in opportunities for Board Members to attend conferences etc. This has impacted morale and may lead to poorer performance in the longer term.

The LRA has been able to identify cost savings. The Comprehensive Spending Review represented a challenging reduction in funding, particularly on administration budgets. In this respect, the Agency is finding it much more difficult to plan and resource emerging employment relations initiatives such as the introduction of early conciliation (which will reduce pressure on the Employment Tribunals).

There have been no other significant control issues during the course of this financial year.

I have considered the evidence provided with regard to the production of the Governance Statement. My conclusion is that governance and control structures have been appropriate for the LRA and have been working satisfactorily throughout 2014-15.

THE CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE COMPTROLLER AND AUDITOR GENERAL TO THE NORTHERN IRELAND ASSEMBLY

I certify that I have audited the financial statements of the Labour Relations Agency for the year ended 31 March 2015 under the Industrial Relations Order (Northern Ireland) 1992. These comprise the Statements of Comprehensive Net Expenditure, Financial Position, Cash Flows, Changes in Taxpayers' Equity and the related notes. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out within them. I have also audited the information in the Remuneration Report that is described in that report as having been audited.

Respective responsibilities of the Chief Executive and auditor

As explained more fully in the Statement of the Agency's and Chief Executive's Responsibilities, the Chief Executive as Accounting Officer is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. My responsibility is to audit, certify and report on the financial statements in accordance with the Industrial Relations Order (Northern Ireland) 1992. I conducted my audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require me and my staff to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Labour Relations Agency's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Labour Relations Agency; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition I read all the financial and non-financial information in the Annual Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by me in the course of performing the audit. If I become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies I consider the implications for my certificate.

In addition, I am required to obtain evidence sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the expenditure and income recorded in the financial statements have been applied to the purposes intended by the Assembly and the financial transactions recorded in the financial statements conform to the authorities which govern them.

Opinion on Regularity

In my opinion, in all material respects the expenditure and income recorded in the financial statements have been applied to the purposes intended by the Assembly and the financial transactions recorded in the financial statements conform to the authorities which govern them.

Opinion on financial statements

In my opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Labour Relations Agency's affairs as at 31 March 2015 and of the net expenditure, cash flows and changes in taxpayers' equity for the year then ended; and
- the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Industrial Relations Order (Northern Ireland) 1992 and Department for Employment and Learning directions issued thereunder.

Opinion on other matters

In my opinion:

- the part of the Remuneration Report to be audited has been properly prepared in accordance with Department for Employment and Learning directions made under the Industrial Relations Order (Northern Ireland) 1992; and
- the information given in the Annual Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

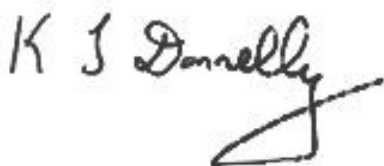

Matters on which I report by exception

I have nothing to report in respect of the following matters which I report to you if, in my opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements and the part of the Remuneration Report to be audited are not in agreement with the accounting records; or
- I have not received all of the information and explanations I require for my audit; or
- the Governance Statement does not reflect compliance with Department of Finance and Personnel's guidance.

Report

I have no observations to make on these financial statements.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Statement of Accounting Policies

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the 2014-15 Government Financial Reporting Manual (FReM) issued by HM Treasury. The accounting policies contained in the FReM apply International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adapted or interpreted for the public sector context. Where FReM permits a choice of accounting policy, the accounting policy which is judged to be most appropriate to the particular circumstances of the Labour Relations Agency and The Certification Officer for Northern Ireland for the purpose of giving a true and fair view has been selected. The particular policies adopted by the Labour Relations Agency and the Certification Officer for Northern Ireland are described below. They have been applied consistently in dealing with items that are considered material to the accounts.

1.1 Accounting convention

The Agency has the responsibility under Article 69 of the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1992 to provide the Certification Officer for Northern Ireland with the requisite accommodation, equipment, facilities, remuneration, travelling and other expenses, together with such sums as she may require for the carrying out of her duties. The Agency also has the responsibility under paragraph 15(2) of Schedule 4 to the 1992 Order to show separately sums disbursed to or on behalf of the Certification Officer.

The financial statements incorporate the results for The Certification Officer for Northern Ireland, and have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention, modified by the revaluation of certain fixed assets, and with the Industrial Relations (Northern Ireland) Order 1992. These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention modified to account for the revaluation of property, plant and equipment.

1.2 Recognition of Income

The approved resource allocations from the Department for Employment & Learning are credited direct to the General Fund reserve on a cash draw-down basis. The annual recurrent allocations from the Department for Employment & Learning are intended to meet recurrent costs. Income from services rendered is included to the extent of the completion of the contract or service concerned.

1.3 Property, plant and equipment

The cost of property, plant and equipment comprises the purchase price and any installation charge.

A capitalisation threshold of £250 (excluding VAT) for IT assets and Building Adaptations and £1,000 (excluding VAT) for all other assets is applied. On initial recognition assets are measured at cost including any costs such as installation directly attributable to bringing them into working condition.

For all assets depreciation is calculated to write off their cost or valuation over their estimated useful lives. Additions in the year bear a due proportion of the annual charge.

The methods adopted and estimated useful lives used are:

Adaptations to short leasehold buildings	-	10 years straight line
Office equipment, furniture and fittings	-	5 & 7 years straight line
Computer equipment	-	3 years straight line

Property, plant and equipment are revalued by reference to appropriate "Price Index Numbers for Current Cost Accounting" produced by Office for National Statistics. Surpluses on revaluation of assets are credited to revaluation reserve pending their realisation.

To the extent that depreciation based on the revalued amount exceeds the corresponding depreciation on historical cost, the excess represents realisation of the surplus and is transferred annually from the revaluation reserve to the general fund.

1.4 Intangible assets

Intangible assets comprise capitalised operational software licenses and the costs involved in implementing the software. The cost of licences and implementation costs are amortised over their expected useful lives of three years. The minimum level for capitalisation of an intangible asset is £250 (excluding VAT) (2014: £250). These assets have been restated using valuation techniques produced by the Office for National Statistics.

1.5 Treatment of pension liabilities

During the year the Agency participated in the Principal Civil Service Pension Scheme (Northern Ireland) (PCSPS(NI)) and bears the cost of pension provision for its staff by payment of an Accruing Superannuation Liability Charge (ASLC). The Agency meets the cost of pension cover provided for staff they employ by payment of charges calculated on an accruing basis.

1.6 Value Added Tax

The Agency does not have any income which is subject to output VAT. Accordingly, the Agency cannot recover any input VAT.

1.7 Operating Leases

The total cost of operating leases is expensed in equal instalments over the life of the lease.

1.8 Operating Income

Operating income principally relates to bank interest receivable which is accounted for on an accruals basis.

1.9 Impending application of newly issued accounting standards not yet effective

The Agency has not yet applied a new accounting standard, and known or reasonably estimable information relevant to assessing the possible impact that initial application of the new standard will have on the Agency's financial statements.

1.10 Financial Instruments

A financial instrument is defined as any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

A financial instrument is recognised when, and only when, the Agency becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. A previously recognised financial asset is derecognised when, and only when, either the contractual rights to the cash flows from that asset expire, or the entity transfers the asset such that the transfer qualified for derecognition. A financial liability is derecognised when, and only when, it is extinguished.

The Agency has financial instruments in the form of trade receivables, trade payables and cash at the bank.

Cash and other receivables are classified as they are initially measured at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, if appropriate, using the effective interest method less any impairment.

Financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, if applicable. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

1.11 Staff Costs

Under IAS 19 Employee Benefits legislation, all staff costs must be recorded as an expense as soon as the organisation is obligated to pay them. This includes the cost of any untaken leave as at the year end. The cost of untaken leave has been determined using the Agency's annual leave records.

3. STAFF NUMBERS AND RELATED COSTS cont'd...(c) Pension Costs

The Principal Civil Service Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) [PCSPS(NI)] are unfunded multi-employer defined benefit schemes but the Labour Relations Agency is unable to identify its share of the underlying assets and liabilities. The most up to date actuarial valuation was carried out as at 31 March 2012. The valuation is then reviewed by the Scheme Actuary and updated to reflect current conditions and rolled forward to the reporting date of the DFP Superannuation and Other Allowances Resource Accounts as at 31 March 2015.

For 2014-15, employers' contributions of £385,706 were payable to the PCSPS(NI) pension arrangements (2013-14, £382,015) at one of four rates in the range 18% to 25% of pensionable pay, based on salary bands. The scheme's Actuary reviews employer contributions every four years following a full scheme valuation. A new funding valuation scheme based on data as at 31 March 2012 was completed by the Actuary during 2014-15. This valuation was used to determine employer contribution rates for the introduction of a new career average earnings scheme from April 2015. From 2015-16, the new rates will change from 20.8% to 26.3%. The contribution rates are set to meet the cost of the benefits accruing during 2014-15 to be paid when the member retires, and not the benefits paid during this period to existing pensioners.

Employees can opt to open a partnership pension account, a stakeholder pension with an employer contribution. No employees of the Agency have opted to do this. Accordingly, these financial statements do not reflect any costs in this regard.

There were no prepaid pension costs at 31 March 2015.

14. Other Financial Commitments

The Labour Relations Agency has no other Financial Commitments and has not entered into non-cancellable contracts.

15. Related Party Transactions

The Labour Relations Agency is a Non-Departmental Public Body sponsored by the Department for Employment and Learning. The Department for Employment and Learning is regarded as a related party. During the year the only transactions which the Agency has had with the Department is the receipt of £3,772,000 grant, as disclosed in the statement of cash flows. None of the Board members, members of the key management staff or other related parties has undertaken any material transactions with the Agency during the year, other than the reimbursement of expenses necessarily incurred by staff in the course of their employment.

16. Financial Instruments

As the cash requirements of the Labour Relations Agency and the Certification Officer of Northern Ireland are met through Grant-In Aid provided by the Department for Employment and Learning, financial instruments play a more limited role in creating and managing risk than would apply to a non-public sector body. The majority of financial instruments relate to contracts to buy non-financial items in line with the Labour Relations Agency's expected purchase and usage requirements and the Labour Relations Agency is therefore exposed to little credit, liquidity or market risk.

17. Impairments

The total impairment charge for the year is £2,283. All IT assets were subject to a downward revaluation and the full amount was charged directly to the Statement of Comprehensive Net Expenditure.

18. Events after the reporting period

There are no events after the reporting period which need to be disclosed.

These accounts are authorised for issue on the same day that the Comptroller and Auditor General signs his audit report.
